

Gear FAQs

I need to purchase a new playing kit, how do I do this?

- A. Online via our website... roversfc.com.au/shop or at one of our registration assistance days – listed on our Website & Facebook.

Does everyone need to buy a playing shirt?

- A. Yes & No.
 - i. All Seniors U18/W18 and over must purchase their own shirt.
 - ii. MiniRoo players (in U6/W6, U7/W7, U8/W8 teams) are not required to purchase playing shirts. They will be provided by the club on a loan basis through team managers and must be returned at the end of the season.

When will uniforms be ready for collection?

- A. On or after our Working Bee at Loftus Oval – follow Loftus Rovers FC on Facebook or check in to our website regularly for updates.

Do I need to purchase any other gear?

- A. You'll also need to buy shinpads and boots. You can purchase these from Rebel as RoversFC participate in the community kickback program and 5% of your purchase goes back to your club.

Can I choose my own number for my playing jersey?

- A. No, once you have ordered and paid on line we will allocate a shirt to you with a number that does not clash with your teammates. This will happen after teams have been announced.

I ordered the wrong size playing jersey, can I exchange it?

- A. Yes.

I've lost my socks and its match day, what can I do?

- A. Socks are available for purchase through the canteen.
